

ISO/IATF 16949:2016

Two Days

Purpose & Outcome

To Provide a comprehensive approach in implementing Best-in-Class systems and the process of certification to ISO/IATF 16949:2016.

By the end of the course the participants would be able to appreciate the need, understand the requirements and advantages.

Process

Through presentation and exercises, participants will be:

- Provided with details of the standard.
- Explained the benefits.
- Explained the clause-wise requirements.

Schedule : 0900 to 1730 Hrs.

Who Should Attend ?

Quality system implementation team, Quality managers, Management representatives.

Why TQMI ?

TQMI, India's leading training and consultancy organisation, with its network of offices across the country, specializes in providing solutions to all your quality related issues. With more than 16 years of its operations, TQMI utilizes the wealth of experience of its counselors, who conduct the training programmes and convert the whole experience into a cherishable memory for all the participants.

The fact that these training programmes are taken repeatedly by its client companies who recommend these programmes to others, is itself a trend setting phenomena. All the exercises and case studies are prepared with the knowledge gained by the counselors and make these programmes useful and practical for the participants.

The number of times these courses are conducted in all these years speak for the value addition the client organizations get out of these courses. The blue chip companies who are working with TQMI have achieved tremendous benefits from these courses and the value addition in their quality management system speaks for the quality of these programmes.